

Short biography of Florin Postica

Florin Postica is Principal Adviser (Director Level) in the European Anti-Fraud Office, OLAF.

Before joining OLAF, Florin worked for over 26 years with the United Nations, in the Investigations Division of the Office of Internal Oversight Services, (OIOS) New York City, United States of America. He held the positions of Senior Investigator, Operations Manager, Head of Office, Acting Deputy Director, Adviser to the Director, Chief of Section, and Senior Programme Officer, in the Office of the Under-Secretary-General of OIOS.

Florin served mostly at UN Headquarters, in New York City, but also spent a few years working in two other UN duty stations: at UNOG, in Geneva, Switzerland and at UNOV, in Vienna, Austria. He retired from the UN in June 2022.

His UN experience includes four years of legal and diplomatic work (as Legal Counsel) dealing with a variety of public international law matters pending with the Sixth (Legal) Committee of the General Assembly of the United Nations (from 1992 through 1996).

Before joining the UN, Florin worked as a Criminal Prosecutor, specialized in crime scene investigations and forensic pathology. He served in a variety of prosecutorial and management assignments, investigating and prosecuting complex cases of homicide, serious criminal cases, management fraud, organized crime and corruption.

He holds a Law Degree and his training, certificates, and attendance to relevant specialized forums include: Seminar in Forensic Legal Pathology; Specialized Seminar on White Collar Crime - organized by the United States Department of Justice Federal Bureau of Investigation (Certificate); Training in the Inspector General United Nations Program organized by the Inspector General Criminal Investigation Academy (Certificate); United Nations Specialized Training on Accounting and Auditing - organized by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (Certificate); Conference on Ethics and Dispute resolution in International Organizations organized by the World Bank Group; Inspection and Investigation Process Training - organized by the United States Department of State (Certificate) and several Conferences of International Investigators.