

Short biography of Andreas Schwarz

Dr. Andreas Schwarz is Deputy Director-General Operations and Investigations in the European Anti-Fraud Office, OLAF.

Before taking up this position he was Director for the Multiannual Framework and Revenue in the Directorate-General for Budget in the European Commission. He started his career as official in 2003 in the Directorate-General for Development Co-operation. Prior to joining the Commission, Andreas worked for the German Development Agency (GIZ) and as Research Assistant at the Institute for International Economic Relations at the University of Potsdam, Germany.

Andreas holds a Doctor rer pol. degree from the University of Potsdam (2001), a Master Degree in Economics from the University of Bamberg (1995) and a Master Degree in Computer Management System from Union College in Schenectady, New York (1993), where he studied as exchange student of the German-American Federation.